

Stepping Up to Senior Leadership

Facilitator: Karen Ardley, Lead Consultant, Karen Ardley Associates

A two-day programme for aspiring senior leaders providing opportunities to explore current leadership and management practice and skills to ensure continual school improvement and high performance.

The programme's objectives are:

- To further develop participants' knowledge, understanding and skills of leadership and management
- To consider current research and excellent practice around key leadership and management activities
- To identify practical, creative and motivational approaches to leading and managing in your school

The programme will focus on the following key areas:

- leading AND managing;
- leading and managing change;
- setting and communicating visions and values;
- knowing and evaluating in your context;
- improving teaching and learning;
- a curriculum for success;
- managing people;
- leading a high performing team;
- leadership styles and skills; and
- planning strategically

Participants will have the opportunity to update, reflect on and share leadership learning. You will leave the programme inspired and informed and ready to motivate people you currently lead and ready to take on greater responsibility in senior leadership.
